- AIDS Community Resources: AIDS Community Resources (ACR), a not-for-profit 501(c)3 organization, was founded in 1983. Its mission is to respond to the AIDS epidemic by working to: prevent the incidence of HIV infections; enhance the quality of life for people infected/affected by HIV/AIDS; collaborate in communities to address HIV/AIDS related needs in the Central, Northern, and Mohawk Valley regions of New York State; facilitate access to available resources; and end discrimination.
- Where the Money Goes: Teen AIDS Task Force (TATF): This teen-centered peer leadership program focuses on topics such as self-esteem, healthy relationships, drug and alcohol prevention, healthy nutrition, and promotion of sexual health and safety. This program reaches more than 6500 youths per year.
- Emergency-Basic-Human Needs: An ongoing stabilization initiative that provides HIV-infected individuals and their families with food, personal care items, household items, and clothing during critical times.
